Dear Dr. Stankovic,

Thank you for selecting synopsys as your university partner for Electronic Design Automation Software.

As part of a software donation, Synopsys has provided a University Tools Package to Cleveland State University. This package includes 50 licenses of each tool for the two year term of August 14, 2013 through August 13, 2015.

Based on your tool selection and actual usage the commercial value of the donation is $4,532,500.00. There are no educational discounts on donations.

We appreciate the opportunity to work with Cleveland State University and are delighted to have you as a Synopsys University Program member.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Burnett Worsham
